9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

Scenario: Customer is correctly determined to be an IE student at certification, student is now working in sample month (mid-period) and could be a potentially eligible student.

Would we count the IE students income in Comp I ?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

No, income would continue to be excluded until student eligibility is reviewed at recertification.

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

QC must use all actual, verified sample month circumstances in comparison I (FNS Chapter 6, 621.1). If in comparison I, the household member is an eligible student, then QC would include the individual and their income (unless it is excluded income, such as, work study, etc.) in comparison I. If this causes a difference over the error threshold, then QC would proceed to comparison II and evaluate whether the actions taken by the CWD were correct at the time of certification.
